The Lord made the sun-shine, He fills the earth with beau -
He gives us the rain, -

- ty He fills our hearts with laugh - ter
From the for-est to the plain. He 10 It's you He's look - ing af - ter, like He wipes a - way our tears, -

15 has thru all the years So I say un-to you, to you I pass the sword: for all the love He's laid on you, Give Some back to the Lord!

What will you give_ Him? For all the world's His gar- den
What could He need?_ And 25

You give the song_ your heart_ can sing You you're a ti- ny seed._ The love you pass_ a-long,

30

give Him al- most an- y-thing_ you real-ly can't_ go wrong_ And I say un-to you,_ to_ you I pass the sword: for all the love_ He's laid_ on_ you,_ Give Some_ back_ to the Lord!

35

_ Do the best that you_ can do,_ you know He's help- ing you_ to be the best that you_ can be_ for all the world_ to see!_

40

Give Some back to the Lord, to you I pass the sword:

45

Give Some back to the Lord! Where will you find Him?

50

How should you look? The answer's right before you in the pages of the Book:

"least of our brethren" is where we pay our dues and you're catch the falling sparrow walk - ing in His shoes. So I say un - to you, to you I pass the sword: for all the love He's laid on you,

55
